FORTIFYING DEMOCRACY FOR THE DIGITAL AGE CONFERENCE PROGRAM

PRAGUE UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS, CZECHIA

The event is open to the public. For attendance, please register here.

THURSDAY, MAY 18TH

SESSION I (14:00-16:00)

- Ivan Jarabinský and Adam Růžička: Democracy has a Hamlet's problem: The Challenge

- Viktor Ivanković and Andres Moles: Liberal Neutrality and the Effects of Democratic Design

- Miroslav Vacura: Freedom of Expression in the Face of a Flood of Misinformation

SESSION II (16:30 - 18:00)

- Gonzalo Velasco Arias: Beyond the Reductionist Approach to Epistemic Responsibility in the Digital Public Sphere: Markers of Solidarity and Deference as a Guarantee of Pluralism

- Filip Tvrdý: Epistemic Disenfranchisement: A Modest Proposal

FRIDAY, MAY 19TH

SESSION III (10:00 - 12:00)

- Glenn Anderau: Retweets, Social Media and Misinformation: On the Norms of Sharing Online

- Samantha Copeland and Lavinia Marin: Institutional Trustworthiness. A Conceptual Analysis of Trust in Public Institutions

- Petr Špecián: The Limits and Possibilities of Large Language Models in Democratic Choice

SESSION IV (13:30 - 16:00)

- Debora Pfaff: Declassifying Intelligence in Support of Global Democracy

- Eva Klusová and Ondřej Filipec: The Role of Clandestine Civic Movements in Protecting Democracy: The Case of Czech Elves as an Example of a Successful Epistemic Community

SESSION V (16:30 - 18:00)

- Petra Chudárková: Moral Progress and Paternalism

- Joshua Sturman: That Which Is Hath Been Before: A Critique of Russel Muirhead and Nancy Rosenblum's A Lot of People Are Saying

SATURDAY, MAY 20TH

SESSION VI (10:00 - 12:00)

- Enio Viterbo: The Brazilian Judiciary and the Anti-Democratic Speech in Social Media. Is the State Protecting Democracy on the Internet?

- Simone Marsilio: Alternative Voting Methods and Nudge Theory: Can a Change be Justified as a 'Nudge'? Widening Evidence on Voters' Satisfaction Through Referenda and Exit Polls

- Ahmet Yiğitalp Tulga: Examining the Importance and Limitations of Big Data in Predicting Election Results with Google Trends Analysis for Predicting Election Results in Turkey